

LODGING OVATIONS COUNTING DOWN TO OPENING OF WHISTLER OLYMPIC PARK NOVEMBER 13, 2010

Whistler Creekside Offers Closest Accommodations To Nordic Olympic Facilities

WHISTLER, BC November 9, 2010 – The first snow-sliding in Whistler for the 2010.2011 season is set to take place at Whistler Olympic Park when their recreational cross-country ski trails open on November 13.

“November will kick off the 2010.2011 season with an Olympic-sized bang as we slide into our first winter after the 2010 Games,” says Jaime Dunn, Director of Sales and Marketing for Lodging Ovations. “Whistler Olympic Park will open to the public for the first time since the games on November 13, and on November 25-27 the Whistler Sliding Centre will host the 2010 VIESSMANN FIBT World Cup Bobsleigh and Skeleton event. Wednesday, November 25 also happens to be Whistler Blackcomb's opening day for skiing and snowboarding.”

Whistler Olympic Park was the site of the Nordic events for the Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games. It's ideal location in the Coastal snowbelt blankets the old-growth forests and surrounding mountain peaks with some of the deepest snowfall anywhere in Canada.

Lodging Ovation's luxury condos, Legends, First Track Lodge and Evolution, are the closest accommodations to Whistler Olympic Park and are also ideally located at the base of the Creekside Gondola on Whistler Mountain. These luxury resort properties are the ideal home base to get out and explore over 7,000 hectares of wilderness and more than 90 kilometers of recreational cross-country ski trails. One-bedroom suite rates at Lodging Ovations start at $119 per night for Whistler Olympic Park's opening weekend.

Stay in the heart of Creekside all winter with 20 per cent off all bookings made prior to November 15, 2010. Lodging Ovations' trio of upscale resort hotels, First Tracks Lodge, Evolution and Legends, are perfectly priced for an exciting winter experience. Rates start at $159 per night before discount. Some restrictions may apply. Visit www.lodgingovations.com for more information.
